

Big Bradford Inside Passage

Description: Launch at the Suwannee Community Center, and we'll wind our way along small creeks, passing by a small canal front community on the left and into the heart of Big Bradford Island. This paddle is a fairly protected Paddle covering a large portion of the interior of the Island, with only a short Paddle along the shore of one of the main passes. Although this Paddle is close to the Gulf, the water remains predominately fresh due to the constant flow of the Suwannee River. As with all the Paddles in the freshwater areas, there is a chance of seeing alligators as well as a multitude of flora and fauna associated with the freshwater delta. Return is back to the Community Center.
